4 QUESTIONS TO ASK WHEN MAKING A TOUGH DECISION

IS IT THE RIGHT THING FOR THIS PERSON?

It’s not about treating everyone the same. You have to be fair and take the circumstance as it is. Ask yourself if you’re being fair. Fairness can be more important than equality, and there is a big difference between the two!

IS IT THE RIGHT THING TO SAY AS A PERSON IN MY ROLE?

If what you said went back to the head of welcome weekend would you be willing to stand behind it. Or would it go over very poorly. This is not to say that you have to fully act in line with every one of there standards, but if it would reflect poorly on Welcome Weekend you might want to rethink the answer.

IS IT THE RIGHT THING TO DO FOR BP?

There is a big difference between us and other dorms. A decision that might be right for us in BP might be the entirely wrong decision for someone in a different dorm. Take that into account, but try to act in line with the BP standards. Everything we do is an extension of BP and we want to look good.

DOES IT FEEL RIGHT TO YOU?

At the end of the day, you have to do what feels best to you. Trust your gut feelings; they will not steer you wrong. Also be confident in your ability to do this, but know that if it is too much you can always reach out to so many people for help.
